

Winter 2009-2010

Dear Friend of St. Monica Academy,

When businesses partner with families in educating local youth, our entire community benefits. There is no better investment than in the education and formation of tomorrow's leaders, taking place right now at St. Monica Academy in Pasadena.

St. Monica Academy is an independent Catholic school for grades one through twelve that provides a classical curriculum to a diverse socio-economic student body. A group of parents who wanted their children to have both rigorous academic training and a solid moral foundation established the school in 2001. The school received a six-year WASC/WCEA accreditation in 2008, a remarkable achievement for such a young school at its first application. Graduates have been accepted at the University of Southern California, UCLA, Berkeley, Notre Dame, Fordham University, the University of Portland, Thomas Aquinas College, Occidental College and Otis School of Design.

We invite you to invest in the future by supporting St. Monica Academy's annual Dinner Auction, to be held on April 17, 2010. This year's theme is WHEN IN ROME. There are a number of ways in which you can support this event:

- donate an item or service to our live or silent auction
- place an ad in the program
- make a cash donation
- become a sponsor
